PASTORAL AND CANNONICAL REMINDERS

Dear brothers and sisters, I am proud that our community is growing in faith and spirituality. I appreciate your contribution towards CSA. I thank all of our parishioners.

- Our parish is a canonically erected parish. Hence we need to observe the canonical regulation of the Catholic Church. So, try to reunite our families which are scattered and help one another to reconcile with each other. No one is allowed to bring any priest for any liturgical rites unless you have prior permission from the pastor. Your financial contribution alone does not bind us together. Instead your pastoral, canonical, social etc. also matter in keeping us one in Christ. Any Liturgical Rite especially the Sacrament which is celebrated without the prior permission of Pastor becomes invalid and illegal.

- Our parish is 78 years old. Most of the members are old in age but rich in spirituality. Hence, we need to help each other to grow more and more in our religiosity. Our Choir stops practicing hymns 25 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass. Those 25 minutes prior to the celebration of Mass are precious. Kindly allow our members to spend their time alone with God. Even if they do don't want to talk with God, perhaps God is willing to talk to them. Every one of us have so many problems. When we are in the church, let us maintain silence and help our neighbor to be with God.

- Participation in the Weekend Mass is mandatory for the First Holy Communion children.

God bless

Arokia S Savio.
