Mass of Healing... this coming Friday, July 4th is the first Friday of the month. We are encouraging as many people as possible to participate in this Mass of Healing, where we pray to God for health of mind, soul and body. Hopefully our Knights of Columbus will furnish a little breakfast so we can have time for fellowship and conversation.

Looking Better...In case you didn't notice, nobody is throwing stones through the back windows of the CAB anymore. It's gone, and there must be unanimous agreement, with the addition of the pretty wooden fence, our entire Parish plant looks 100 times better.

A Special Day... This Sunday is another special day as we celebrate two great Saints, Peter and Paul. Don't let these special occasions pass by without you noticing them. I'm sure they were rather close to the man upstairs, so if you have a special intention, ask them to put in a good word for you.

A Great Privilege...It is a great privilege to serve when assigned as a Eucharistic minister, Lector, or whatever. Again we appeal that if you are aware of the fact that you will be unable to serve on a given occasion, please, please, please, we don't want the same person serving every Sunday.

If...If anyone would like to be a Eucharistic minister, Lector or whatever, please give your name to Fr. Ruane. As already stated, it is a great honor to serve in one of these ministries.

Choose Life... Life, the first right: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

God's Housekeepers... We thank those of you who conscientiously take your turn to keep God's house neat and tidy, in keeping with the dignity of our church, where we celebrate the gift of the Eucharist. Please continue to be mindful of your turn, and if you'd like to take a turn, there is a sign-up sheet in the vestibule.

God's Housekeepers for the month of July: Dorothy Marascalco, Mary Cooper, Sheila McDaniel Thank you!
