Our New Converts

Daily Mass... We have a few new faces coming to daily Mass. It's always a blessing for our church family to even have a few more.

Sick & Suffering... If any relative or person you know is sick at home or in the hospital, please let Fr. Ruane know so that he can visit them. It is better to let him know now so he can visit them, than to complain later that he didn't visit.

Special Collection Next Week... Bishop Kopacz has authorized a special collection to be taken up to assist the victims of the tornado that struck Monday, April 28th. All proceeds from the collection will go to Catholic Charities to assist these victims. Please be generous.

First Communion, Mother's Day & High School Grads... On May 11th we will honor our graduation seniors, our first communion class and our mothers. We hope these people will attend 9:00am Mass because we will have a reception and breakfast afterward for them.

First Communion... Congratulations to the young people making their First Holy Communion today:
Natalie Orear, Marcus Cook and Kayla Orear

Choose Life... "Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching its people to love, but [rather] to use any violence to get what they want. That is why the greatest destroyer of love and peace is abortion." (Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

Quote... Finding happiness should not be seen as finding a needle in a haystack. Happiness is within. Each day is a blessing that brings an abundance of happiness. Therefore, finding happiness should be like finding a gift in a stack of gifts. (Steve Maraboli)

Sick or In The Hospital ... Just a friendly reminder because of the Hospital confidentiality requirement, if anybody you know from our church family please let us know so we can be sure to visit them.

God's Housekeepers for the month of May: The Trost & Tipton families: Thank you!
