21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Due to COVID-19 regulations and until further notice, we are not using Eucharistic ministers. We are not currently assigning Lectors either. We kindly ask that anyone who is a Lector that attends a Mass is prepared to read. We appreciate your support and willingness to serve in this matter.

Altar Servers: The current updated COVID-19 regulations allow the use of altar servers. We will not be assigning altar servers, but anyone who wishes to serve may volunteer. Altar servers who are youth or adults that are unvaccinated are required to wear masks and are asked to arrive early to be prepared to serve.

Catholic Service Appeal Second Collection:

The annual Catholic Service Appeal collection will be next weekend. We must remember that we are one with other parishes in our diocese. Once a year, our Bishop asks us to respond in gratitude by making a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries that provide services that no one parish could provide on its own. Through the CSA we all work together to care for the Church by sharing the gifts God has granted us. Let us follow in the footsteps of Sister Thea Bowman and celebrate our Catholic faith and work together to continue to build God's kingdom.

Reminder of Updated COVID protocols:

In light of the increase in COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations in Mississippi and throughout the country due to the Delta variant of the virus, the Diocese of Jackson has updated our current protocols.

During Mass social distancing needs to be maintained at a minimum of 3 feet and hand sanitizer should be used upon entering the church.

Masks are encouraged, especially for those individuals with compromised immune systems or other underlying health concerns.

When considering whether or not you should wear a mask, please approach the decision prayerfully with consideration of the community's common good.

Altar servers and lectors are encouraged to wear masks.

Volunteers Needed:

We need volunteers to teach faith formation classes to our children beginning soon. Please contact Annette Tipton if you are willing to share the gift of faith.
