THOUGHT FOR THE YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

The Eucharist as covenant: "To surrender to God is to realize that one's life is not one's own, that a higher and more compelling voice commands. In all of this, we sense that friendship with God (a covenant with him) would involve sacrifice, the abandonment of the self. And in a "world gone wrong, there is no communion without sacrifice."
Said by Bishop Barren

Dear brothers and sisters, greetings of Easter!

I was ordained on April 24th 1983. All these years the Lord who called me made use of me for his ministry with His providential and guiding light. Your full support and encouragement makes me effective. I thank each and every one of you for your prayers and help. I ask you to continue your prayers and support for me.

From April 25-29th all our Diocesan priests are having our annual retreat. I will remember all our our parishioners in a special way. Please remember to pray for me too.

As you know, my Dad passed away last year on May 21st. I was not present at home at that time. So, I am going home this year to complete certain cultural formalities in the village. Hence I will be absent from the parish ministry here from the 1st week of May through 1st week of June this year. Kindly continue to pray for my Mum and Dad. My mum passed away on April 30th 2012 while I was at St, Joseph, Woodville, south of Natchez. If anybody has any sacramental requirements to be assisted, kindly contact me before 1st of May.

God bless
Savio
