NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Steve Cebuhar from St. John, Charleston, has been accepted by our Chancery to be employed in our parish office. We welcome him to our community. Michelle Owens has come forward to offer her volunteer service in our parish office. We welcome her too. For any content pertaining to the weekly bulletin, kindly contact Michelle Owens at 662-273-4318. For all matters concerning book-keeping, etc., kindly contact Steve Cebuhar at 662-871-4256.

In the light of the Synod on Synodality process, our Bishop Kopacz has given us the program, "The Pastoral Reimagining and the Celebration of the Eucharistic Revival," for our diocese. Kindly read the "insert" in this bulletin. Accordingly, our Pastoral Council, under the leadership of David Livingston, will begin the process for St. Peter and at St. John as well. Sandee Berezni, the secretary of the Pastoral Council of St. Peter and Annette Tipton our Religious Coordinator of St. Peter, have come forward to initiate the process for members of St. Peter and St. John. Please review all four videos between now and July 31st in order to be prepared to discuss and answer the questions when we meet on Monday, July 31st at 6 pm, in the Family Life Center. All members of St. Peter and St. John are welcome. As the output of these Ecclesiology video sessions, we will form the teams for discussions. We will receive the questions at the meeting. As this is a continuation on the Synod on Synodality process, the pastor is not present when the parishioners gather to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of our parish(s), determine a vision forward, and growing together in unity and oneness as a Catholic Community in today's world. More details and the options to watch the videos are given in the "Insert."
